Beginners will receive 5 hours of intensive Czech language instruction language daily.

Intermediate will receive 5 hours of intensive Czech language instruction language daily, they may also attend lectures.

Advanced students take 3 hours of intensive Czech language instruction and two hours of conversation or lectures.

Lectures are conducted in Czech.

New!

Thematic seminars

Everyone chooses a topic of interest from the range of seminars. E.g. There will be a choice from Czech poetry, history or politics.

Entrance criteria

The Summer School is attended by both Scholarship Holders of the Czech Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports (MŠMT ČR) and Self-Payers. The number of places at the Summer School is limited (80).

Some of the places available (42) are reserved for Scholarship Holders of the Ministry of Education of the Czech Republic on the basis of interstate cultural agreements. Foreign applicants apply for these scholarships to the relevant authorities (usually the Ministry of Education) in their country. The remaining available places (38) are for paying participants who pay their own living expenses.

Accommodation and Meals

LSS participants are accommodated in student dormitories in twin rooms.

Breakfast, lunch and dinner are served in the canteen in the form of a buffet. The dormitory and canteen are located near the Faculty of Arts, on the campus of the University of South Bohemia.
